

THE INTERNATIONAL IMPERIAL COURT SYSTEM

EST. 1965

History

The International Imperial Court System was founded in 1965 by World War II veteran Jose Julio Sarria, a Hispanic gay activist who in 1961 became the first openly gay candidate to run for public office in North America. "From a seed planted in San Francisco, it grew into a strong royal oak tree with its branches now stretching over Canada, Mexico and the U.S.A." Empress I Jose passed in 2013 at the young age of 90 years.

In 2007 Empress I Jose crowned her heir and successor, San Diego City Commissioner Nicole Murray Ramirez, a gay Latino activist for over 45 years. Empress Nicole The Great was crowned and proclaimed "Queen Mother I of the Americas" and is the CEO, Chairman and "Titular Leader" of the International Imperial Court System.

In 2017 Queen Mother I Nicole the Great celebrated the 10th anniversary of her reign "The Renaissance Era"!

A LETTER FROM PRESIDENT OBAMA

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

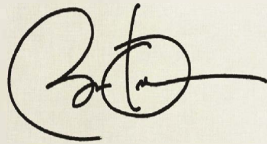

November 30, 2015

For decades, courageous lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and gender nonconforming Americans have blazed trails for others and pushed our Nation closer to its founding ideal of equality for all. The International Imperial Court System is a proud part of that movement, helping lay the groundwork for much of the progress the LGBT community has seen.

Since the International Imperial Court System was founded in 1965, it has tirelessly served the LGBT and gender nonconforming communities across North America by supporting HIV/AIDS awareness programs, organizing Pride parades, building community centers, and offering scholarships to students. But the Court is more than just an advocate for LGBT issues, it is an outlet for creative expression—a community where people are free to be themselves no matter who they are.

Your organization's pursuit of inclusion reminds us not only of our founding principles, but also of our human ability to connect with others when they need us. Being allies to the dispossessed, marginalized, and forgotten is what this country is all about, and it is that daring effort that will continue to move our Nation forward.

As you celebrate 50 years and look toward tomorrow's progress, I send all members of the International Imperial Court System my best wishes.
